

Position: Full-Time Oncology Support Counselor
Status: Full-time, salaried, exempt

The mission of Wellness House is to better the lives of people living with cancer. Programs and services include exercise classes, nutrition seminars, support groups, and more. In our goal to offer psychosocial support, we are currently seeking to fill the position of Full-Time Oncology Support Counselor.

Summary Job Description:

The Oncology Support Counselor provides direct psychosocial support to individuals and families living with cancer. The Oncology Support Counselor is responsible for facilitating support groups, providing individual consultation and counseling, and leading workshops and classes for individuals diagnosed with cancer and their caregivers. Counseling may be held at Wellness House, partner locations, or online. With the Program Manager, this role is responsible for planning and coordinating partner programs for people affected by cancer and maintaining productive professional relationships with hospital, medical, and community partners. Additionally, the Oncology Support Counselor contributes ideas and feedback regarding program development and evaluation.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Education: Master's degree or higher in psychology, social work, or related field; must be licensed or soon to be.
- Job Experience: Two years professional experience in community health-related work.
- Special Knowledge & Skills: Experience facilitating support groups required; knowledge and aptitude working with Microsoft Office.
- Demonstrated Competencies: Solid organization and planning skills, willingness to collaborate with peers, innovative thinker, highly ethical, commitment to the mission of Wellness House.

Interested individuals should forward cover letter and resume to HR@wellnesshouse.org.
No phone calls please.

Wellness House is an EOE.