Wellness House Ambassador

Role Summary & Anticipated Outcome

Promote awareness of Wellness House/The Courtyard and help achieve revenue and participation goals. As a Wellness House Ambassador, you are an extension of staff and an integral part of the Wellness House community.

Opportunities to represent Wellness House:

- Health fairs at medical partners, corporate sponsors, schools, faith communities, etc.
- Networking events
- Healthcare Professional Interactions
- Check presentations
- Third-party fundraising events

This may involve:

- Providing interested parties with information about Wellness House and The Courtyard: program areas, event information, store information, contact information etc
- Sharing your story about why you are involved in Wellness House/The Courtyard and why our mission is important to you
- Identifying opportunities in your own community to share information about Wellness House/The Courtyard and to share your story
- Talking about how donors' support enables Wellness House to provide programs at no charge to participants

Staff responsibilities to Ambassadors

- Provide training on Wellness House/Courtyard history, programs and events
- Provide materials pertinent to tabling and presentations
- Be available for any questions or concerns

Qualifications and Skills

- Commitment to mission of Wellness House: Wellness House envisions a community where all people affected by cancer thrive. Offered at no cost, and as a complement to medical treatment, our programs educate, support and empower participants so they will improve their physical and emotional well-being.
- Strong presentation, communication and networking skills
- Customer service and relationship oriented
- Current/past program participants, volunteers or current/past board members are welcome!

Commitment

- One-year commitment, 5-10 tabling opportunities per year to choose from

- Availability for community outreach via phone or in-person interactions
- Attendance at two annual ambassador check-in meetings

Impact

- Wellness House's mission, campaigns, and programs will be spread to those who otherwise would be unaware. This will increase the breadth of programs and services which may result in increased funding and additional participants who will benefit from our services

Benefit

- Wellness House Ambassadors will hone presentation and public speaking skills, meet new people, network with community organizations, and advance the mission of Wellness House
